Challenges To Authority The Renaissance In Europe A ...

The third volume, bolder in conception, discusses the German Reformation, the Spanish picaresque novel, science, the occult, and the essays of Montaigne under the general title of `challenges to authority'. Throughout The Renaissance in Europe, the different authors make a point of discussing new approaches to the subject, noting for example how the Renaissance affected everyday life (one section is entitled `Fonts, forks and fireworks'). To keep the balance, they also devote a good deal of ...
