Tax is a 'financial charge' or deduction from something you get or own, or an additional cost added to something you buy. It is not a penalty or fine for doing something wrong. Normally, governments collect taxes so that there is a pot of money to spend for the benefit of society as a whole.

Introduction to the tax system | Low Incomes Tax Reform Group

Taxation is the most important source of revenues for modern governments, typically accounting for 90 percent or more of their income. The remainder of government revenue comes from borrowing and from charging fees for services. Countries differ considerably in the amount of taxes they collect.

Taxation: I INTRODUCTION TO TAXATION

Taxation is a financial charge imposed on people. Taxation is a means whereby the state collects funds to pay for public services. All tax laws should conform to the Maxims of Taxation EQUITY 1.
