A Project Report On Home

The most common type of project report, a project status report provides a general state of the project to its stakeholders. It quantifies work performed and completed in measurable terms. It compares this with an established baseline to see if the project is on track or; if adjustments have to be made if the project is behind its schedule.

How to Write Project Report: Complete Step-By-Step Guide

A detailed project report is a formal record stating, clarifying and recording various aspects of the project and keeping them for future reference, if needed. There are many types of project reports and each serves their own purpose. A report helps to gather all thoughts, processes and creations together in one place and documents the project.
