Foundation Phase Planning Ourselves Topic

Learning about ourselves is a fundamental part of childhood development, especially as pupils start to ask questions about who they are and how they are the same, or different, from others. As such, the start of the academic year - when everybody is getting to know one another - is the ideal time to start an "all about me" topic.

All about me planning for EYFS | Tes

'All About Me' is a topic taught early on in primary schools. Often, it's one of the first topics taught in schools. It's used as a way of allowing children to get to know one another and is a breakthrough topic to encourage children to discuss 'all about me'.
