The problem is the only calculus they offer at my community college is MAT220 which is just regular calculus. At the university that I plan on transferring to next year, they require me to take 251 which is calculus for life sciences.
220 at my community college is considered 270 at the university.

Calculus vs Calculus for Life Sciences : math Take Life Sciences Calculus if you have to take Calculus. In my four years of medical school I never once encountered a Calculus problem or even a Math problem that could not be solved using high school Algebra. It was the same story in Residency, even though I was a Nuclear Medicine resident, and have never had to use it practicing medicine.

Calculus for the Life Sciences is an entire reimagining of the standard calculus sequence with the needs of life science students as the fundamental organizing principle. Those needs, according to the National Academy of Science, include: the mathematical concepts of change, modeling, equilibria and stability, structure of a system, interactions among components, data and measurement, visualization, and algorithms.
