Master Guide For Passing The

Inevitably, every footballer needs to master the skill of passing. Mastering the art of passing is one of the basics in football.

Passing is an effective way of keeping possession in any match and should be the first skill set for any beginner to pick up when learning football. There are mainly two types of passes - long passes and short passes. There are other varied terms like a long weighted pass or a short through pass, but they effectively fall under either of these two categories.
