Tab Benoit - If I could quit you - YouTube

To talk about a wish for the future or to show a contrast between how things are and how we would like them to be, we use if only + would + infinitive without to: If only someone would buy the house. If only they would talk to each other. We use if only + past perfect to talk about a wish to change something that has already happened: If only he had listened to what his friends had been telling him.
