After years of research and innovation, Saturn's first car, the S-Series, debuted as a 1991 model. It was a compact car with then-futuristic styling, and it was nothing like anything an American brand had ever produced before. The body panels were plastic, rather than metal, enabling the car to absorb runaway shopping carts (and even minor parking lot bumps) undamaged. The body was a spaceframe design, which was both lightweight and strong.
