Islamic Gardens and Landscapes by D. Fairchild Ruggles

Creating Islamic gardens and landscapes around estates and palaces enhanced the buildings and the lifestyles of those that lived there, but also provided common grounds with play fields and cultural activities. Islamic garden plants were often brought in from other countries, but some of the flora was native and cultivated for maximum effect.

Islamic Garden Design - Information About An Islam Garden ...

An Islamic garden is generally an expressive estate of land that includes themes of water and shade. Their most identifiable architectural design reflects the Charbagh quadrilateral layout with four smaller gardens divided by walkways or flowing water. Unlike English gardens, which are often designed for walking, Islamic gardens are intended for rest, reflection, and contemplation.
