6. Personal Freedom. We live in a society committed to self-love and to each one doing his own thing, pursuing his own happiness, comfort, and peace. This commitment to self, of course, is destructive to society, to the family, and any human relationship. Such a course is the product of Satan's influence and delusions and is directly opposed to the direction and injunctions of Scripture for the life of the Christian.

True freedom is only achieved when our hearts are changed, not when the books are balanced. The same can be said for political and verbal freedom. Both are significantly good and should be advocated and protected, but they are peripheral freedoms in comparison to true freedom. True freedom occurs only in the heart when it is changed and made new.
