Theological Political Treatise Baruch Spinoza

Written by the Dutch philosopher Benedictus Spinoza, the Tractatus Theologico-Politicus or Theologico-

Political Treatise was one of the most controversial texts of the early modern period. In it, Spinoza expounds his views on contemporary Jewish and Christian religion and critically analyses the Bible which underlies both. He argues what the best roles for state and religion should be and concludes that a degree of democracy and freedom of speech and religion works best, like in Amsterdam, while
