Real Property Law. Real property law covers many different topics related to land ownership and the use of the land. It deals with title and ownership rights, as well as the limitations on those rights. Some of the ways ownership rights can be limited are by government regulations relating to zoning, environmental conditions, fair housing and other state and local laws.

Real Property Law - Land Ownership Law - Use of Land

New York, home to a teeming metropolis of 8 million people, has specific laws when it comes to landlords and tenants, real estate and property. For instance, a landlord in New York doesn't have a set deadline as to when to return a renter's security deposit. Most states require this to be done in 14 or 30 days. No such requirement in the Empire State.
