Instead, using simple language, Joe Quatrone, Jr. addresses intriguing questions; such as:* Why must there be consequences to actions? * What are the benefits of waiting for God's will and how would I even know what that is? * How can I stand strong in my faith against society's ungodly pressures? * How does my relationship from the past affect my relationship with God now? * Is there a secret to contentment? * How can I be secure in my salvation? * What happens when I die? "Back to the Basics: A Guide for Christian Living" is a great down to earth guide to basic Christian principles. Each concept is explained clearly without a lot of confusing doctrine and theology. If you are unsure of every part of your faith, a new Christian, want your faith shaken up, or have questions and no answers, then try this book. It will help bring Scripture to life, make sense of the hard questions, and enhance your understanding of the way life was meant to be lived.
