But Cat Out of Hell takes things further: What if that plot was part of an ancient occult conspiracy, a feline cabal at the beck and call of a dark lord? Lynne Truss is best known for her humorous defense of English grammar , Eats, Shoots & Leaves , but before that breakthrough, she had published four novels.

Editions of Cat Out of Hell by Lynne Truss
As an avid cat lover I was mesmerised by this dark and humourous tale of demonic cats and sinister librarians. Lynne Truss perfectly captures the absolute hold these pesky creatures have over us hapless souls and the fact that no matter what devilment they get up to, they always manage to enchant us with their un-worldly beauty and absolute self-assurance.
