We preach God's law so that we can point people to the gospel. "Opponents must be gently instructed, in the hope that God will grant them repentance leading them to a knowledge of the truth.". 2 Timothy 2:25. "Godly sorrow brings repentance that leads to salvation and leaves no regret.". 2 Corinthians 7:10.

Law and Gospel - UnderstandChristianity.com

In Romans 3:19-20, Paul said that the Law brings the knowledge of sin, which causes us to stand before God with our mouths closed. We stand in silence before him because after looking at the perfect law, we see that we have no pleas of our own righteousness. It is only when a person comes to this point that he will see the beauty of Christ.

Using the Law as You Share the Gospel - Radical

The Law shows us what we are guilty of and the Gospel delivers us by grace. First, we must know we are guilty (Law) before we recognize our need to ask for forgiveness (Gospel). The Law kills. The Gospel makes alive. When Moses came down from the mount after receiving the Law and saw that the Israelites had fallen into idolatry, he threw the tablets of the Law down to them and 3000 people died (Exodus 32:28).

So gospel includes law in an important sense: God's kingdom authority, his demand to repent. Even on the view of those most committed to the law/gospel distinction, the gospel includes a command to believe. We tend to think of that command as in a different class from the commands of the decalogue. But that too is a command, after all.

Distinguishing between the law and the gospel is the highest art in Christendom, one who every person who values the name Christian ought to recognize, know, and possess. Where this is lacking, it is not possible to tell who is a Christian and who is a pagan or Jew. That much is at stake in this distinction.
