Politics At The Airport Book

Politics at the Airport brings together leading scholars to examine how airports both shape and are shaped by current political, social, and economic conditions. Focusing on the ways that airports have become securitized, the essays address a wide range of practices and technologies—from architecture, biometric identification, and CCTV systems to “no-fly lists” and the privatization of border control—now being deployed to frame the social sorting of safe and potentially dangerous ...

Atatürk Airport: 1991–2019: 27 years (exact dates unknown) Ran away from family problems and worked at the airport for a while. Eventually became sick, and could not work anymore, but decided to keep living at the airport. Airport closed for commercial passenger travel in 2019, so he had to leave. Now lives in Sabiha Gökçen Airport.
