e. The Black Liberators was a militant civil-rights organization formed in St. Louis, Missouri in the spring of 1968. The Liberators were led through most of their short existence by Charles Koen, who went on to organize a nationally noted civil-rights campaign in Cairo, Illinois. The organization was strongly inspired by the Black Panther Party which had established a firm base in the neighboring city of Chicago, adopting the party military-style uniforms, radical rhetoric, and black ...
