I admit I was nervous about reading Desolate, #2 in the Empathy series, as Empathy is in my top 5 favourite dark reads, once I read the first chapter I realised there was no need as Ker Dukey in all her brilliantness delivered once again. Desolate picks up 18 years later, Blake and Melody are happily married with their daughter Cereus.

Ker Dukey was the author that really gave me a love for dark reads. Her amazing words for Ryan in Empathy will always stay with me. I could never imagine how they were thought up but they were beautifully brilliant. Desolate was the same in my reaction. With that being said, I was left wanting a lot more from Vacant.

Ker Dukey impressed me with the first novel in this series, Empathy, a few months ago. I signed up to review the second book and found myself delighted when the ARC landed in my e-mail. I wanted to read it ASAP, but ended up purchasing the novel on Amazon as it is now released, because I genuinely want to show the author my support.
