Making A Will | Wills, Trust and Estates - Will Writing

Will trusts are mainly used by couples to split ownership of the family home if they own it as 'tenants in common'. Rather than leaving their share to each other, they each leave it to a trust, which comes into being on the death of the first partner. Until recently, will trusts were a common way of saving on inheritance tax (IHT). A couple potentially liable for IHT could split their estate into halves, both below the nil-rate band.
