Focus on solutions, not problems. - Dr. Ivan Misner®

One of the secrets to great leadership is the ability to move forward and the only way to move forward is to find solutions rather than focus on the problems. This is not to say that we should ignore problems or not spend time analyzing them. The key is to spend just enough time on a problem to learn from it and then focus on how to fix it.

Focus on Solutions not Problems - YOUR LEADERSHIP MATTERS

Solution Focus is part of the new wave of thinking about effective change that includes Appreciative Inquiry, Positive Psychology and NLP. Unlike previous 'big ideas' of the 1990s like business process re-engineering and downsizing (with all the disruption they entailed), Solution Focus is a big idea that focuses on small steps and keeping it simple.

The very first step to approach problems with solution focused thinking is to avoid questions that mainly focus on the reason or the problem in general. You need to clarify yourself that the question for the "WHY" will only waste important time that you could have invested to solve a given problem.

Since that's the case, it's better (and way more productive) to focus on the solution instead. Your mind can only give its full attention to one thing at a time. If you focus on the problem, negative thoughts can overtake you more readily. Fear, self-doubt and worry may prevent you from moving forward and dealing with the issue at hand.
