I've read elsewhere that the motherboard is an ACER B46H5-AD. I can't find a manual on one of those either. However I really don't need on. The picture you've attached is great. What I really needed to see is where the m.2 connection is. Which is #8 by the looks of it . 0.

Acer won't acknowledge a quality issue because of the ramifications. So they lose one customer at a time, me being one of them. They have the ability to correct issues on a case by case basis but refuse. If you are out of warranty you can't even talk to someone at Acer , it goes to a third party service. That's their customer service. Pathetic.
