German writer Thea Von Harbou published Metropolis in 1925. It is a love story that crosses class lines, as well as a novelistic exploration of social formation. Fitz Lang, Von Harbou's husband, based his 1927 classic film, Metropolis, on this book. The story begins in the year 2026. The city where the action takes place, like much of the world, is divided between an upper class that pursues its own pleasure ceaselessly, and a working class, which is forced to content itself with working ten ...
