Reason for my three stars is simply that, as mentioned in another review, many of her pictures have already been published in other books covering Vivian Maier's life as a photographer. I can only assume that the reason is that Maloof plan to publish more books of her works. In other words - making more money on her works.

Vivian Maier: the nanny with a secret life as a photographer

Vivian Maier is a photographer who had clearly been influenced by the other benchmarks in street and documentary photography of her period and before. The myth is that she was a Nanny who mucked around with a camera. The author, Pamela Bannos, has developed a much better understanding of Maier, her apparent motivations and development pathway.
