Mostly due to its core value of being true to the writer’s own life, originality in a Grunge Narrative is completely negated if the writer follows themes or stories that had already been written by others. To be a poseur is perhaps the gravest sin of a writer who uses Grunge Narratives in his/her work. Besides a lack of true talent, to infringe on another person’s works by changing details is the sign of an amateur.

Grunge Narratives - a Guest Article by Nick Younker - Ink ...

A "major rift" between grunge and post-grunge is in the lyrical substance of the music; grunge expressed emotion through loose metaphors or third-person narratives, while post-grunge was known for being direct and blunt. While describing lyrics that are common in post-grunge, Sasha Geffen of Consequence of Sound wrote that post-grunge "plunged directly into the "I." "Geffen wrote that most ...
