From award-winning writer and critic Alison Croggon, Monsters is a hybrid of memoir and essay that takes as its point of departure the painful breakdown of a relationship between two sisters. It explores how our attitudes are shaped by the persisting myths that underpin colonialism and patriarchy, how the structures we are raised within splinter and distort the possibilities of our lives and the lives of others.

The Singing is an amazing conclusion to the Books of Pellinor. It started with the first book and through til the end started my love affair with this series. The whole book shows so many things that are true in our world as well as Maerad's. Croggon shows the horror of war, power of friendship and love, and the slow movement of recovery.
