Based in large part on a persuasive recommendation from our friend Megan, we decided the hills of Tuscany would be perfect for our five day recharge. For those that aren't familiar with this area, Tuscany is a beautiful region in central Italy that's known for its green hills, fresh food, and fantastic wine – especially Chianti. Florence is the largest city in the area, but the region is best known for its small, ancient villages that give the area a very old world and relaxed vibe.
