Sorry Zoran Drvenkar

Sorry is certainly a readable book, but it's really two stories - the story of the killer, which is quite intriguing if unpleasant, and the story of the four personality-free friends who run the agency which is much less involving - in fact the whole plot about the agency seems almost irrelevant and under-developed.

Sorry: Amazon.co.uk: Drvenkar, Zoran: 9780007439287: Books

Zoran Drvenkar's thriller novel Sorry is a nearly ideal illustration of this idea. It's a deceptively simple yet compelling idea...the sort of thing that sounds brilliant when you're drunk and hanging out with your friends.
