'Faithful Witness' in the Bible

Because we serve a Savior who is faithful and true. He is called the faithful witness, the true one, the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the holy and true one, the just and true one, and one day the heavens will open, and all the world will behold, one sitting on a white horse and He is called Faithful and True and He will bring every Word God has promised us to pass.

The Faithful and True Witness - Faithlife Sermons

"Witnesses" (and "witnessing") is the vocation of the Christian. We are to tell the truth about the Lord Jesus Christ, who is "the true and faithful witness" (Revelation 3:14). The text before us morning provides ample testimony to this description. In this passage, we have a contrast between a true witness and false witness.

He was faithful to the work of God; He accomplished that work at the cost of His own life. In being faithful, He was also "True." He loved truth, lived truth, and died for truth. He loved righteousness and hated lawlessness. But "true witness" may also carry the thought that He is the example of the quintessential witness.
