Frank The Voice James Kaplan

But what Kaplan understands and was smart enough to put into written form is that the most interesting part of Sinatra's life was really that time from the early 40's to mid-50's: his rise as "The Voice", mobs of girls wetting their pants for him; his downfall in the late 40's and early 50's when his shady relationship with the mob, serial cheating on his wife, and a combustible second marriage to Ava Gardner--who was essentially a female version of Frank Sinatra-- soured him to the public ...
