Steel by Carrie Vaughn | Book Review

Sinew and steel and what they were told By Carrie Vaughn The abject tragedy of all your secrets found out by those you help in the highest estimation. The collapse of his world when they found out he lied, and how he finds redemption.

Sinew and Steel and What They Told by Carrie Vaughn

In the Author’s Note included in the back of the book (and which you can read online), Carrie Vaughn acknowledges that while there were female pirates like Anne Bonney and Mary Reade, there were likely other female pirates in the Caribbean and perhaps even female pirate captains 1 The sense of pirate history in Steel is similarly well done, and everything from the gritty details of scraping a ship’s hull to the endless repetition of scrubbing the deck is written beautifully.
