A video of an elephant trying to sit on a tourist car in Thailand's Khao Yai National Park has been going viral recently. Bangkok Post reports that Duea, the 35-year-old elephant was taking a stroll around a tourist car, and decided to put his entire weight on it by lowering itself on the roof of the car. One can see the stopped car in the video, and if vehicles could breathe, the car in the video would not have been breathing because of anticipation of what the elephant was going to do.
