The Heart of Centering Prayer: Nondual Christianity in ...

The Heart of Centering Prayer will resonate with beginners as well as seasoned practitioners. It sheds new light on the well-hidden Christian nondual path. Cynthia Bourgeault is a faculty member in the Center for Action and Contemplation's Living School. She is a modern-day mystic, Episcopal priest, and internationally known retreat leader.

The Heart of Centering Prayer: Nondual Christianity in ...

Centering Prayer is the path to a wonderful and radical new way of seeing the world. It is not, as is sometimes thought, simply an act of devotional piety, nor is it a Christianized form of other meditation methods.

The Heart of Centering Prayer: Nondual Christianity in ...

Centering Prayer is a Christian contemplative form of meditation practice developed in the 1970s by three Trappist monks, Fathers William Meninger, Basil Pennington and Thomas Keating. The practice method draws upon the contemplative heritage found within biblical scripture and Christian mystical writings such as the medieval classic The Cloud of Unknowing .

Cynthia Bourgeault here cuts through the misconceptions to show that Centering Prayer is in fact a pioneering development within the Christian contemplative tradition. She provides a practical, complete course in the practice and then goes deeper to analyze what actually happens in Centering Prayer: the mind effectively switches to a new operating system that makes possible the perception of nonduality.

The Heart of Centering Prayer: Nondual Christianity in ...

This book brilliantly places Centering Prayer at the heart of the contemplative discipline for lay Christians, and to my mind is easily her best written work to date. The opening chapter of the book provides possibly the best description of how to 'do' Centering Prayer that there is available in written form.
