The Newlyweds Nell Freudenberger

The Newlyweds by Nell Freudenberger (337 pages) It's surprising that the author, who apparently wrote this book after making friends with a family from Bangladesh, was able to write realistically from the perspective of a young woman from Bangladesh who meets an American man from Rochester, New York and, after an online romance and one visit from him, begins their her life with him.

The Newlyweds (Vintage Contemporaries): Freudenberger ...

The Newlyweds by Nell Freudenberger is about George, a White man in Rochester and Amina, a Bangladeshi woman in Dhaka who meet and arrange their own marriage through the power of online dating. While I thought this was an original premise, I had reservations about The Newlyweds from the outset. I thought, oh no, not another arranged marriage saga.
