I Must Win This Battle - Kindle edition by Atunnise ...

Any must-win battle, the authors write, needs five elements: It must make a real difference, be market-focused, create excitement, be specific and tangible, and—of course—be winnable. “One reason the management teams sometimes do choose must-win battles that prove to be unwinnable is that they assume the competition will not react to what they are doing," they caution.

Must-Win Battles - HBS Working Knowledge - Harvard ...

Must-win battle is a phrase that creates energy. The word battle suggests that there are competitors to be fought and defeated, and must-win implies the battles are urgent and important. So it is not surprising that senior managers who are unhappy with the current performance of their business find the idea of MWBs intuitively appealing, and it is not difficult to convince them that they ought to take their top teams away for a week to identify their MWBs and figure out how to win them.
