Promised Land. God promised to show Abram a land (Genesis 12:1).After a long and perilous journey he pitched his tent in the plain of Moreh and the Lord Assured him that he was in the land intended for his possession (Genesis 12:6,7).However, he was a sojourner during his entire life (Acts 7:1-5; Hebrews 11:8,9).This land extended from the river Euphrates to the river of Egypt (Genesis 15:18-21).

Topical Bible: Promised Land

Follow Abraham and his guardian angel as they face the forces of nature, men and demons on their perilous journey to the land that God has promised. More than 4,000 years ago God commanded Abraham to leave his father's house and travel to a promised land far to the west. But no journey across the ancient world is safe.
