Unfortunately it was a very slim volume from which all the political comment had been removed. It was still interesting to someone 'in the trade'. Many years later, and also ago, I read the unexpurgated version.

Robert TRESSELL (1870
- 1911) Clearly frustrated at the refusal of his contemporaries to recognise the iniquity
of society, Tressell's
cast of hypocritical

Christians, exploitative capitalists and corrupt councillors provide a backdrop for his main target — the workers who think that a better life is "not for the likes of them".

LibriVox

The poor working people who tolerate capitalism are the
ragged trousered
philanthropists.
Perhaps Tressell's only compensation is the possibility that, as Marx suggested, the system will collapse of its own accord because of internal contradictions. In the meantime we have to keep plugging away to change things.
