Innovating can be identified in terms suggested by Engestrom (1999): new forms of collaborative practice or new expansive networks. Towards integrating Ecologists remind us of an alternate emphasis to endless product invention: reviving practices already in circulation and re-engaging familiar, even ancient, wisdom.

Innovation: brave new language of lifelong learning

The two books 1984 and Brave New world reflect futuristic views that are quite different and dichotomous. Indeed, 1984 reflects a world of dystopia and punitive government while the work Brave New world reflects one of more utopian conditions but is no less controlled and crafted by a master plan.
